Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The Museum's collection consists of automobiles and other memorabilia that are held for education and curatorial purposes. The Museum has policies in place to ensure that the collection is adequately displayed, stored, protected, and maintained. The collection has been acquired through purchases and contributions since the Museum's inception. The Museum has adopted a policy of not capitalizing the collection in its financial statements. Accordingly, no collection items are recognized as assets, whether they are purchased or received as a donation. Purchases of collection items reduce net assets in the period when purchased. Proceeds from sales or insurance recoveries are recorded as increases in net assets when received. It is the policy of the Museum that proceeds from the sale of any collection items are to be used to purchase additional collection items.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The LeMay car collection serves as a showcase for auto manufacturers' achievements and future direction in design, technology and product development. The cars are used in the interactive educational center for interpreting automotive history and demonstrating restoration and preservation.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The Board of Director's responsibility is to provide for an appropriate executive compensation policy. The Museum's executive compensation policy is intended to ensure that the Museum remains competitive with similar institutions in terms of salary, fringe benefits, and provision of professional development opportunities. The policy is also intended to ensure that the executive and professional compensation is not "excessive" as defined by the Internal Revenue Service regulations currently in effect.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	The CEO's and President's employment contracts provide for a performance-based bonus paid at a pre-determined amount at the discretion of the board each year.
