Part I, Line 2	Distributions are on a reimbursement basis. All distribution requests are ensured to be adequately supported by both the Foundation and Finance. There is an established review process for the Employee Helping Hands Fund to ensure that all distributions are supported by need. The Foundation sends award letters with the grant funds to our partner agencies, denoting what the funds are to be used for, as per the approved proposal. We also utilize backbone support from the United Way (who is one of three entities, along with the Municipality of Anchorage and the Anchorage Coalition to End Homelessness, to serve as the backbone for the Anchorage Community Plan to End Homelessness) to ensure that the intent of the funds are being communicated to the partner agencies and followed through. The United Way provides regular informal and formal progress updates to me and to our Region leadership team to ensure that the intent of PHSA's donation is being met.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The reporting organization did not provide any of the benefits listed in Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a. However, as part of Providence's philosophy of transparency, the narrative that follows relates to the compensation and benefits provided by the related organization. Providence Health & Services Expense Reimbursement Procedures include the following policy: Tax Indemnifications or Gross-Up Payments - Gifts. Providence Health & Services follows the federal and state taxation laws related to gifts paid to the employee. These are considered income and are therefore subject to payroll taxes. Based on the way Providence has chosen to pay the gifts, Providence reports the payment as income and this amount is reflected on the executive's Form W-2. Providence will gross-up the benefits to offset the personal tax burden to the employee. During 2016, there was 1 Officer receiving gross-up payments.
Part I, Line 4b	NON-QUALIFIED RETIREMENT PLANS A) SERP = Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan 1) Bruce Lamoureux a) SERP Earned but not Paid - $17,360 b) SERP Interest Credit - $84,118
FORM 990, SCHEDULE J, PART II - EXECUTIVE INCENTIVE PROGRAM	The Providence Executive Incentive Program provides a lump sum award annually as a percent of the executive's base pay. Percent opportunities are aligned with our total compensation philosophy as outlined in Part VI, Section B, Line 15 (Process for determining compensation of top management, officers & key employees). For Providence leaders, the performance award is based on the level of accomplishment of annual system and functional (or market) objectives. In 2016, 60 percent of the participant awards were based on pre-determined organizational goals consistent with Providence's strategic priorities. In 2016 the percent allocation for each of these strategic priorities was as outlined below: System Goals: First-year Turnover - 10% Inpatient Experience - 5% Patient Experience - 5% Medical Group Patient Experience - 5% Community Benefit - 10% Clinical Excellence - 15% Free Cash Flow - 10%. The remaining 40% was based on a robust set of function specific goals designed to align critical mission and business drivers.

The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence. On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement. Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs. 990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent. Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging. The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees. Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities. Providence also maintains a network of community ministry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments. Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its officers, including our senior executives. Salaries for senior executives are reviewed by the Providence St. Joseph Health Committee and approved by the full Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee. The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization. Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence. Additionally, Providence's labor market continues to spread across health care and into general industry. Because of this, Providence also takes into consideration general industry for-profit market data, where applicable. Base salaries for Providence executives are generally targeted to the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Executive Compensation Committee. Performance incentives allow executives to earn additional compensation if they achieve specific organizational goals for furthering Providence operating commitments and strategic objectives. The Board of Directors conducts a thorough process to ensure performance incentives are aligned with appropriate market practices. The Board's process for executive compensation fully complies with IRS standards and mirrors best practices. The Foundation President is compensated by a related organization which uses a market based compensation program utilizing several independent third party compensation market surveys to establish pay ranges for the position. The related organization then establishes the individual rate of pay within the range based on relevant experience, skills and competencies. The rate offered to the President at the time of
