| Part X, Line 2   | The Credit Union is exempt, by statute, from federal income taxes. The Credit Union is a state chartered credit union described in IRC Section 501(c)(14). As such, the Credit Union is exempt from federal taxation of income derived from the performance of activities that are in furtherance of its exempt purposes. An exempt organization return and unrelated business income tax returns are filed annually with the applicable federal and state tax jurisdictions. FASB Codification Topic 740, Income Taxes, provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, disclosed and presented in the financial statements. This requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Credit Union's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are more likely than not to be sustained "when challenged or "when examined" by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax expense and liability in the current year. For the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, management has determined there are no material uncertain tax positions. The Credit Union recognizes interest accrued and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as an administrative expense. No interest and penalties were recognized for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015. |

| Part I, Line 1a  | * First-class travel - President/CEO & all Directors (10 people), not taxable to individuals because such travel is reasonable and customary within the industry for high-level executives. The board has approved such travel in limited circumstances and substantiation of all expenses is required. * Travel for companions - all Directors (9 people), taxable to individuals. * Health or social club dues - President/CEO, taxable to individuals. * Personal services - President/CEO and Senior Executives (8 people), taxable to individuals.                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Part I, Line 4b  | The following individuals received payment from a 457(f) plan: R. Stuart - $4,064,016; J. Hunt - $250,000; E. Pratt - $268,858. Amounts that were reported as deferred on prior year Forms 990 are included in Part II, Column F.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Part I           | The Board of Directors controls all compensation or benefit changes that would affect the President/CEO. All changes to the President/CEO's compensation and benefits are governed by an employment contract and any amendments to the contract. The compensation committee reviews the President/CEO's compensation package each year. The salary schedule and benefits program for the President/CEO is tied to geographic studies of salaries and benefits performed by professional organizations with expertise in the area of compensation. These included the Cardwell Consulting 2016 Top CEO Total Compensation Survey report, the 2014 Towers Watson Executive Compensation Review, and the 2016 Milliman Financial Industry Survey. |
