| PART II, SECTION A, LINE 1 | UNUSUAL GRANTS During 2014, the organization received a grant in the amount of $25,000,000 from disinterested persons. This grant is considered unusual due to its large amount and its impact on the organization's public support test. This unusual grant is excluded from calculations on Schedule A, Part II, lines 1 and 5. |

| Part I, Line 2   | As most grants go to an affiliated companies, the Foundation has access to the financial reports and can review these records for appropriate use of funds. Providence's regional nursing manager works with all educational institutions to monitor the nursing education funds provided to each school. The Foundation has worked closely with Catholic Charities in establishing an Employee Assistance Program. Financial records are provided as requested by the Foundation. The Foundation gifted to the YMCA Child Care program located on the campus of Providence St. Vincent Hospital. Scholarship grants to individuals are monitored through follow up reports from the recipients. |

| FORM 990, SCHEDULE J, PART II - EXECUTIVE INCENTIVE PROGRAM | The Providence Executive Incentive Program provides a lump sum award annually as a percent of the executive's base pay. Percent opportunities are aligned with our total compensation philosophy as outlined in Part VI, Section B, Line 15 (Process for determining compensation of top management, officers & key employees). For Providence leaders, the performance award is based on the level of accomplishment of annual system and functional (or market) objectives. In 2016, 60 percent of the participant awards were based on pre-determined organizational goals consistent with Providence's strategic priorities. In 2016 the percent allocation for each of these strategic priorities was as outlined below: System Goals: First-year Turnover - 10%, Inpatient Experience - 5%, Patient Experience - 5%, Medical Group Patient Experience - 5%, Community Benefit - 10%, Clinical Excellence - 15%, Free Cash Flow - 10%. The remaining 40% was based on a robust set of function specific goals designed to align critical mission and business drivers. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | Providence Health &amp; Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations. The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health &amp; Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence. On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement. Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs. If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15 | It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent. Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging. The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees. Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities. Providence also maintains a network of community ministry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments. Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its officers, including our senior executives. Salaries for senior executives are reviewed by the Providence St. Joseph Health Committee and approved by the full Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee. The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization. Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence. Additionally, Providence's labor market continues to spread across health care and into general industry. Because of this, Providence also takes into consideration general industry for-profit market data, where applicable. Base salaries for Providence executives are generally targeted to the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Executive Compensation Committee. Performance incentives allow executives to earn additional compensation if they achieve specific organizational goals for furthering Providence operating commitments and strategic objectives. The Board of Directors conducts a thorough process to ensure performance incentives are aligned with appropriate market practices. The Board's process for executive compensation fully complies with IRS standards and mirrors best practices. The Foundation Executive Director is compensated by a related organization which uses a market based compensation program utilizing several independent third party compensation market surveys to establish pay ranges for the position. The related organization then establishes the individual rate of pay within the range based on relevant experience, skills and competencies. The rate offered to the Executive Director |
