Part III, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The reporting organization did not provide any of the benefits listed in Part I, Line 1a. However, as part of the related organization's philosophy of transparency, the narrative that follows relates to the compensation and benefits provided by the related organization. Providence Health & Services Expense Reimbursement Procedures include the following policies: Travel or Charter Travel or Travel of Companions. Air travel is reimbursable and should be at the least expensive airfare, which permits departures and arrivals at reasonable times and reasonable distance traveled. Employees are encouraged to plan in advance to get available discounts. Airline frequent flyer upgrades will never be reimbursed. First class full fare tickets and charter must be approved by a senior level supervisor. Companion travel will only be reimbursed by the organization for travel related to relocation, and should not exceed two relocation-related visits, unless approved by the Executive Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer (EVP, CAO) of Providence St. Joseph Health. Spouse or Companion Travel: Travel expenses incurred by a PH&S employee's spouse or companion will not be reimbursed by PH&S unless the spouse or companion is required to, or invited to attend a PH&S System-sponsored meeting. These expenses may be considered a taxable benefit by the IRS and if so, will be included on the employee's W-2. During 2016, there were 11 First Class tickets utilized by Officers, Directors or Key Employees listed on Form 990, Part VII Tax Indemnifications or Gross-Up Payments - Relocation. Providence Health & Services follows the federal and state taxation laws related to relocation expenses paid to the employee or to a third party on the employee's behalf. They are considered income and are therefore subject to payroll taxes. Based on the way Providence has chosen to pay the relocation expenses, Providence reports reimbursements and payments to vendors as income and these expense payments are reflected on the executive's Form W-2. Providence will gross-up the relocation benefits to offset the personal tax burden to the employee for IRS allowable expenses. During 2016, there were 2 Officers and 1 Director receiving gross-up payments. The amounts reported for these gross-up payments are included on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) - Other Reportable Compensation on the Form 990. Tax Indemnifications or Gross-Up Payments - Financial/Retirement Planning. Providence Health & Services follows the federal and state taxation laws related to other expenses paid to the employee or to a third party on the employee's behalf. They are considered income and are therefore subject to payroll taxes. Based on the way Providence has chosen to pay these other expenses, Providence reports reimbursements and payments to vendors as income and these expense payments are reflected on the executive's Form W-2. Providence will gross-up the financial/retirement planning benefits, during 2016 only, to offset the personal tax burden to the employee for IRS allowable expenses. During 2016, there were 2 Officers and 2 Directors receiving this type of gross-up payment. The amounts reported for these gross-up payments are included on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) - Other Reportable Compensation on the Form 990. Housing Allowance or Residence for Personal Use. Providence Health & Services provides housing allowances for purposes of relocation assistance only. Providence may pay temporary living expenses for the employee up to a maximum of 90 calendar days. Covered expenses are rent (excluding "rent" which may be paid in order to occupy a new permanent residence until the title clears) and utilities, including heat, electricity, gas, water, local internet and local telephone and garbage services. The EVP, CAO PSJH may approve temporary housing assistance for up to six months when family relocation is delayed to accommodate the school year or equivalent circumstances. Only in extenuating circumstances is housing extended beyond this six month period. During 2016, there were 2 Officers and 1 Director receiving relocation/housing program payments. The amounts reported for these relocation/housing payments are included on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) - Other Reportable Compensation on the Form 990.

FORM 990, SCHEDULE J, PART II - EXECUTIVE INCENTIVE PROGRAM	The Providence Executive Incentive Program provides a lump sum award annually as a percent of the executive's base pay. Percent opportunities are aligned with our total compensation philosophy as outlined in Part VI, Section B, Line 15 (Process for determining compensation of top management, officers & key employees). For Providence leaders, the performance award is based on the level of accomplishment of annual system and functional (or market) objectives. In 2016, 60 percent of the participant awards were based on pre-determined organizational goals consistent with Providence's strategic priorities. In 2016 the percent allocation for each of these strategic priorities was as outlined below: System Goals: First-year Turnover - 10%; Inpatient Experience - 5%; Patient Experience - 5%; Medical Group Patient Experience - 5%; Community Benefit - 10%; Clinical Excellence - 15%; Free Cash Flow - 10%. The remaining 40% was based on a robust set of function specific goals designed to align critical mission and business drivers.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Providence Health & Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations. The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence. On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement. Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs. If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent. Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging. The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees. Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its officers, including our senior executives. Salaries for senior executives are reviewed by the Providence St. Joseph Health Committee and approved by the full Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee. The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization. Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence. Additionally, Providence's labor market continues to spread across health care and into general industry. Because of this, Providence also takes into consideration general industry for-profit market data, where applicable. Base salaries for Providence executives are generally targeted to the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Executive Compensation Committee. Performance incentives allow executives to earn additional compensation if they achieve specific organizational goals for furthering Providence operating commitments and strategic objectives. The Board of Directors conducts a thorough process to ensure performance incentives are aligned with appropriate market practices. The Board's process for executive compensation fully complies with IRS standards and mirrors best practices.
