PART VI, LINE 12C ENFORCEMENT OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY	The conflict of interest policy of CareOregon is distributed to the board members annually. It applies to directors, officers and key employees (on the basis of tests set forth in IRS Form 990), and any other individual in a position to exercise significant influence over a decision having material economic impact for CareOregon (collectively covered persons). The conflict of interest policy is reviewed and approved periodically by the board. An annual conflict of interest declaration and independence questionnaire is distributed to all covered persons. Through the distributed document, each covered person signs and acknowledges their compliance with the conflict of interest policy and reports family and business relationships that are used to determine the independence of a director pursuant to the definition and tests set forth in IRS Form 990. The governance committee reviews the responses to the annual questionnaires and makes recommendations to the full board on any resolutions or actions required to mitigate any conflicts of interest. At the beginning of each meeting of the board of directors, the chair asks all members present to declare any conflicts of interest so the board is updated on any new conflicts that may have arisen since the last annual questionnaire. All signed conflict of interest policy acknowledgements and independence questionnaires are retained at CareOregon's office. If for a specific matter requiring board action, a conflict of interest exists, as determined by the board, an interested person may make a presentation at the meeting, disclosing the existence of his or her interest and shall disclose all material facts. Following the person's disclosures and after any discussion with the board, the individual leaves the meeting while the board independently discusses the matter before it votes on the proposed transaction or arrangement involving the conflict of interest. If there is a reasonable question about the appropriateness of the proposed transaction or arrangement, the chair shall appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transactions or arrangements. After exercising due diligence, the board shall evaluate the resulting alternatives presented by the appointed person or committee. If an appropriate conflict-free alternative is not reasonably attainable, the board shall determine by majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the original transaction or arrangement is in CareOregon's best interest, for CareOregon's own benefit, whether the transaction is fair and reasonable to CareOregon, and whether the transaction is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. The board shall then vote whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with the evaluation of the foregoing.

PART VI, LINE 15A AND 15B PROCESS OF DETERMINING COMPENSATION	Market data on the total compensation package for executive positions (CEO, COO, CFO, CMO, and CNO) is provided annually by an outside independent compensation consultant using comparable organizations by industry, profit/non-profit status and revenue size. The compensation committee, consisting of a majority of independent board members, reviews market data, evaluates CEO performance and reviews CEO recommendations for compensation for other executive officers. The committee presents its recommendations for CEO to the board. Decisions are made in a board meeting. The board reviews the recommendation for the compensation of all other employees as part of the budget approval process. The process of determining the compensation of top management officials and key officers includes a review of an independent consultants report of comparable salaries of similar organizations and is guided by written compensation practices. With the CEO and all other officers absent from the meetings, the board approves the salary of the CEO. This process was last undertaken on March 30, 2016 for the CEO, and the CEO's recommendations for other officers. There is contemporaneous documentation of this process and the results.
