Blanket Coverage

VI A. 2 & 8 Family Relationship: Blanket Coverage was founded by husband and wife team, Daniel and Lynn Griffith. Over the past 30 years their children, John Daniel and Joseph Andrew, grew up in this work and have taken a major role in its operation. Their college and cultural training focused on multi-cultural and inner city work. From these extensive experiences they carry an intense knowledge of inner city crisis intervention. They remain invaluable in the operation and management of this work. And they will maintain this service to those living in the streets after the founders have retired.

VI B. 11a- The effective operation requires constant interaction with all members which includes discussing the 990. And is now a regular topic as we grow accustomed to the format. But being in a small organization we lean heavily on one another and want to pass along the necessary expertise for completing this form.

VI B. 15 a & b. -Paul Griffith, not a relative, is a CPA and tired VP from Multnomah University. He works voluntarily, never receiving compensation. Using standards of comparative organizations, taking into account experience, education, risk and basic standard of living for settling all compensation. However, under continuing economic stress salaries remain frozen.

VI 19. All such information is made available upon request which is often the case prior to receiving donations from new individuals and companies. However, we know our information is available on line.

XI 9. The Changes come from an adjustment in part X of the intangible asset portion.

It is related to a growing commitment and pledges from the donor base. And also expanding volunteer commitment and community efforts. And we continue to show a surplus to the budget.
