Name: Green Empowerment

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Green Empowerment works with local partners around the world to strengthen communities by delivering renewable energy, clean water, and complementary health, environmental, and capacity building projects. Our niche is the intersection of technology solutions, conservation, and community engagement. Since 1997, we have prioritized integrated projects that improve human well-being, address social justice issues, are ecologically and economically sustainable and have the potential for broad impact beyond any one community. In 2016 alone, GE helped 3,770 people get electricity in their homes through renewable energy, provided 4,741 people with access to clean water and 2,767 people with new sanitation facilities, had 94 participants in service learning trips and trained 3,089 members of beneficiary communities.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	Green Empowerment establishes multi-year working relationships with its partner organizations, all of which have considerable experience in implementing renewable energy and water projects. Projects are jointly identified and proposed to donors and local government. Green Empowerment signs a sub-award agreement with each partner for each project and makes field visits to nearly all of its projects. Green Empowerment engineers and project managers have substantial roles in project design and oversight. Our partners send Green Empowerment periodic progress reports and a final report.
