Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Income taxes - The Credit Union is exempt by statute from federal and state income taxes, except for taxes on unrelated business income, as further discussed in Note 11. The Credit Union's wholly owned subsidiaries are taxable entities, and income taxes related to subsidiaries for 2016 and 2015 were not material to the consolidated financial statements and are included in other operating expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of income. Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740-10-65, Income Taxes, provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, disclosed, and presented in the consolidated financial statements. This requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Credit Union's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are more likely than not of being sustained when challenged or when examined by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more likely than not threshold would be recorded as tax expenses and liabilities in the current year. For the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, management has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, has not recorded a liability for the payment of interest or penalties.
