Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	To receive its grant, a grantee must sign a Grant Condition Form, which outlines the allowable uses of the funds. The form also sets forth reporting requirements, by which the grantee must submit a written report, typically due a month after the grant term has ended, documenting how the Foundation grant was used, the demographics of those served, and the impact of the grant on the community. A grantee is also required to provide any documentation reasonably requested by the Foundation, including financials, and accommodate reasonable site visits by the Foundation during the year in which the grant funds are used by the grantee. Recipients of two-year grants must submit a written report documenting use of the funds in compliance with the Grant Conditions Form prior to receiving the second year of funding. Foundation program staff ensures compliance with these requirements and reviews all grant reports. On occasion, Foundation staff and/or Board members make site visits to a grantee and/or request a grantee to make an in-person presentation to the Board.
