Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Celebrating our 27th year of giving, and 17 years of our camp program, The Taylor Family Foundation (TTF) is proud to continue the tradition of providing children and their families hope, inspiration, friendship and a direct link to a broad community of caring people. TTF has helped more than 45,000 children living with HIV/AIDS, diabetes, autism, skin disease, pediatric cancer, and a variety of other conditions. Sustainably built and maintained, our Camp Arroyo programs provides a safe, nurturing environment for children to come and experience specialized and healthy meals, equestrian therapy, music therapy by our licensed Music Therapists, ropes course, zip line, swimming, archery, camp art, and education on resources that will sustain and support them as they mature into adulthood. All of our programs are provided to our campers at no charge to the particular visiting camp group, the children or the families of the children. Children come from all Northern California counties and at least 50% come from economically challenged families living near or below the poverty level. As a result of their time at camp children are empowered to reach beyond their perceived limitations, build emotional and physical strength and find a new self-reliance that enables them to lead others in making a positive impact on the communities in which they live.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Taylor Family Foundation supports families in urgent need, be it financial, medical, emotional, or programmatic. All of our urgent needs families have a child who is medically fragile or at risk. Their needs place a financial and emotional burden on the family unit. The Taylor Family helps families with basic needs and tangible necessities to rebuild their lives. Our services cover funding parental housing close to their child's treatment center or hospital so they have a warm, safe place to stay, funding the costs of transportation to and from the treatment center or hospital, and buying the family food, clothing and necessities or funding wellness therapies such as Music therapy and Equine Therapy. TTFF provides our Urgent Needs Funding at no cost to the family. This support allows our families in crisis to be a productive and caring family and to continue to be a contributing member of the community.
