Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Workforce Development Our Workforce Development programs offer a pathway to self-sufficiency, economic advancement, and overall stability We offer comprehensive technology classes, including a 22-week Career Track course which integrates computer, ESL, and professional development classes Using a rigorous and progressive curriculum, we focus on building the skills for higher paying jobs and promotions We also provide small business support for Concord residents who are looking to formalize their businesses Through CalWORKs Welfare to Work program, we provide training to help people get into the workforce Our long-standing Day Labor Program is largely self-organized, and helps connect employers with workers, ensuring a strong hourly wage This program area has allowed many low-income workers to move into moderate income careers, resulting in a greater financial independence Day Labor members were placed in a total of 4287 temporary job connections Total Served 98Technology Total Served 170Career Track Total Served 104Youth Programs Total Served 69

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Community Engagement Monument Impact has long been committed to providing training to community members to develop their leadership and advocacy skills. Members learn to identify issues of great concern and then participate in policy development at the city level to make improvements to their community. This has included working with the City of Concord on bike and pedestrian safety, providing free Monument Community Shuttle services that take residents to key centers in the city, and collaborating with the Police Department on Emergency Response training in Spanish. The importance of this program area has grown even more urgent at a time when our community is seriously impacted by new immigration policies, as well as by displacement due to the Bay Area's affordable housing crisis. Recently, members have advocated at Concord's City Council for rent control and rent mediation. Total Served 4530

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Healthy Community Through multiple programs that promote an overall healthy quality of life, Monument Impact offers more than 20 physical activity classes every week, health education, individual health coaching, workshops in cooking and nutritious eating, and our program led by trained community promoters called Positive Minds in Action is a collaboration with UCSF and John Muir Hospital, is designed to reach Spanish-speaking community members of Concord who self-identity as living with stress and depression. All of our Healthy Community Programs use Spanish-speaking promoters to disseminate tools for community members to be active, healthy, and in charge of their well-being, especially important considering the preponderance of fast food restaurants in the Monument. Our advocacy efforts in partnership with Kaiser, First 5/Central County Regional Group and others have also helped improve the Monuments parks and increased safety and use.
