Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	Membership in the Association shall be six classes: retail member, supplier member, honorary member, life member, individual member, and allied member. Retail Member. An individual or corporation with one or more operating convenience stores may apply for membership in the Association by filing with the Association office an application together with a check to cover appropriate dues. All representatives of a retail member may participate in any regular or special meeting of the Association, but each retail member shall have only one vote. Supplier Member. Companies dealing with the convenience store industry may apply for participation as a "supplier member." Supplier members will have no voting powers. No supplier member or its representative may serve as an officer. Supplier members will be represented by a Supplier Board. The Chairman and Chairm-elect of the Supplier Board shall be voting members of the NACS Board of Directors. Supplier members will have no obligation other than their annual dues and shall not be held legally responsible for actions of the National Association of Convenience Stores. Honorary Membership. For recognition of meritorious service to the retail convenience store industry, an honorary membership in the Association, without voting or office-holding powers, may be granted to any person upon the recommendation of any member of the Board of Directors and approval of the Board of Directors at any regular Board meeting. Such honorary membership shall be for one year unless extended by vote of the Board of Directors at any regular Board meeting. Life Member. Any past president or past chairman of the Board of Directors of the Association will be an individual member of the Association for life. Such membership is non-assignable, non-transferable, and personal in nature. For recognition of long-term, meritorious service to the convenience store industry, a life membership in the Association, without voting or office-holding powers, may be granted to any person upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee and approval of the Board of Directors at any regular Board meeting. Individual Member. An individual who is engaged in the convenience or convenience and petroleum retailing industry as an owner, employee, franchisee, supplier, consultant, or any reasonable affiliation with the industry, including the spouse, partner, or guest of any such individual is eligible for "individual membership." Benefits of "individual membership" shall be determined by the NACS Board of Directors. Allied Member. Petroleum marketing companies that market through other companies may apply for "allied membership." A company that may qualify to apply both as a retail member and as an allied member shall be classified as a retail member, and the greater of the dues schedules shall apply. Benefits for this category of membership shall include and be limited to access to NACS meetings, exhibiting at the NACS Show, and the purchase of NACS
