Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The organization has a written policy regarding payment of First Class Air Travel. The organization's travel Policy establishes that for air travel exceeding 4 hours in length, purchase of business class tickets is allowed for the Vice president, President and Trustees. When available, barter is the preferred method of air travel. If Business Class tickets are not available, First Class tickets can be purchased. In addition, the organization will consider the purchase of a business class (or first class, if business class is not available) ticket for the producers of their program services to attend production meetings and the actual event and for performers to attend events sponsored by the organization. The Organization has determined that first class travel meets the business requirement standard for not treating the benefit as compensatory on Forms W-2/1099.
