Members, along with commissioned officers and civilian employees of the agency are paired with the indigent children as they shop and hopefully combating the negative image of law enforcement in some sectors of the community by virtue of these positive interactions. All requests for funds from the Washoe County Sheriff's Office for equipment, supplies and training that are approved by the executive staff are paid directly to the equipment, supply or other provider. All funds donated to charitable organizations are paid directly to the local chapter of the organization for use in the community. The Shop With The Sheriff and Fourth Street Christmas on the Corridor Programs for indigent children are supervised by the volunteers from the Honorary Association and the Washoe County Sheriff's Office. The programs support indigent children and their families who are nominated by various public and private charitable organizations as qualifying for federal assistance. No public grant funds are obtained or distributed by the Honorary Association. All dues/donations/grants are reported to the membership with the membership providing input in regard to potential projects to support. Individuals receiving training are typically scheduled to appear before the Honorary Association members to relate their experiences at the training facility with live demonstrations by the K-9 Unit dogs and the Mounted Horse Unit and static displays of new equipment conducted at meetings of the Association.

The first quarterly meeting of the membership features a Mystery Dinner where the Forensic Science Division professional staff writes and presents a forensically based mystery. The third quarterly meeting of the membership features a celebration honoring community heroes whose willingness to get involved during the past year is acknowledged. Throughout the year the Association underwrites the costs for providing a traditional dinner on all of the major holidays whereby those employees of the agency required to work on the holiday can enjoy with their family, the meal.

Explanation of Part VI, Line 11: The members of the Board of Directors and Officers of the Association as listed in Part III are President and Treasurer Pat Dolan; Secretary, Terry Babione; and Sheriff Chuck Allen. They have received and reviewed the Form 990 for tax year 2016 prior to the completion and filing of the same. In addition, quarterly membership meetings discuss the donations made by the Association during the course of the fiscal year, including the purpose and entity and the amount of funds disbursed as well as the balance of funds on hand and available in the Association's accounts. Additional recommended charitable support opportunities proposed by the Washoe County Sheriff's Office and by the members are discussed during these quarterly meetings. Internal requests for funding are routed through the executive staff to avoid duplication; attempts to shift budgeted funds; and requests for support for equipment, supplies and training that do not economically or efficiently advance the mission of the Washoe County Sheriff's Office.

Part VI, Line 19: These documents are available to any member of the public who requests to view these items. The monthly bank statements showing receipts, disbursements, interest accrued and banking charges incurred are available in binders by fiscal year at the Washoe County Sheriff's Office and similarly available for inspection. Guidance on the handling of funds, including their expenditure are set forth in the Lexipol Policies, General Orders, Standard Operating Procedures, Articles of Organization and Operation, and the checks and balances noted therein. In further response to Part VI, Line 19 above, no other written conflict of interest policies and procedures are in place or felt necessary to insure that all expenditures are fully in keeping with the charitable purposes established by the Association to promote the mission of the Washoe County Sheriff's Office.
