Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

PROGRAMS Grief Seminars are held throughout the year for all law enforcement survivors across the United States. In May of each year during the National Police Survivors' Conference held in Washington, DC, during National Police Week, survivors can attend a number of different seminars on grief issues. In May of 2016, approximately 3,300 police survivors and affected coworkers registered for C O P S seminars. Debriefings, one-on-one counseling, family counseling, and crisis intervention sessions were held for the adult survivors. The children participate in their own peer-support group sessions. They work with counselors and trauma specialists to address their individual grief issues. During the summer and fall of the year, C O P S provides survivor specific retreats, known as "Hands-On Programs". They are Kids Summer Camp, Teens Outward Bound Experience, Young Adults Camp, Adult Children, Spouses, Parents, Sibling, Co-workers, Co-workers for Couples, Fianc/Significant Other, and Extended Family Retreats. These retreats are held at rural locations and around the country. The survivors experience self-help challenge activities as well as meeting and networking with peers who have experienced the same type of loss. All of the retreats have licensed mental health professionals that provide group and individual grief counseling for the survivors. The camps/retreats held during the summer and fall of 2016 had 1,056 survivors in attendance. Survivors return time and time again to C O P S' programs for support. The first time they attend, they say it is because the event honors their fallen officer. The second time they attend a C O P S event, they do it for their own mental well-being. After that, they come to provide support to the more newly-bereaved families. However, survivors have also returned years later when they realize issues with the death have never been emotionally resolved, the perpetrator may be coming up for parole, or another life experience has brought the horror of the death back to the forefront of their thoughts. Public Safety Agency Assistance is accomplished in a number of different ways. Each year during the winter months C O P S holds a series of training sessions titled The Traumas of Law Enforcement. These trainings educate America's law enforcement agencies about appropriate response to officer death and appropriate care for law enforcement families affected by line-of-duty death, disability, post traumatic stress disorder, and police suicide. In the 2016-17 fiscal year, these 3 day trainings were held in Clackamas, OR, Bettendorf, IA, Cincinnati, OH, McAllen, TX, West Palm Beach, FL, Lakewood, CO, Sacramento, CA and Burr Ridge, IL. C O P S contracts with leaders in the field of police trauma to conduct the sessions. The resource manual, Powerpoint presentations, and entire training have been highly praised by training participants year after year. In the 22 years that C O P S has been sponsoring these trainings, 150 sessions have been held. C O P S held its 2nd annual national Conference on Law Enforcement Wellness & Trauma. This conference had sessions with topics covering how to navigate the stresses of a law enforcement career, preparing for line-of-duty death, staying centered amidst negativity, police suicide and officer fitness and nutrition. This conference on Wellness and Trauma was well received with a total of 433 participants from across the country. C O P S also produces a quarterly Rap Sheet newsletter for law enforcement. This newsletter is mailed to over 43,000 law enforcement officers and agencies across the United States. C O P S provides printed educational materials to law enforcement agencies and officials to help them develop a policy within their departments on handling a line-of-duty death. Some of the educational materials include topics on support at the hospital, assistance during the wake and funeral, and assistance with benefits. C O P S also continued to distribute a QuickSeries Pocket Guide that we developed for law enforcement. These small booklets are designed to provide quick reference to law enforcement departments that suffer a line of duty death. These booklets are distributed upon request from the National Office, through the C O P S Chapters and at law enforcement conferences. Members of the C O P S Board and staff regularly attend key law enforcement conferences around the country in order to educate law enforcement personnel and related organizations about the services C O P S provides to survivors and law enforcement agencies. C O P S may also offer presentations specifically designed to help them prepare to respond to a line-of-duty death. Attending these conferences also provides important inroads toward providing services to agencies and ultimately to surviving law enforcement families and co-workers. C O P S has partnered with the Public Safety Officers Benefits (PSOB) Program at the Department of Justice to train sworn and retired law enforcement officers to serve as resources to agencies filing a PSOB Death Claim following a line-of-duty death. Currently C O P S works with these PSOB Benefits Liaisons to cover every state, reaching out to all agencies experiencing a line-of-duty death.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

PEER SUPPORT & BENEFITS Peer support and survivor benefits and outreach is provided through the 53 C O P S Chapters in operation across the country. These Chapters are comprised completely of volunteers who provide an immediate response to survivors when an officer dies in the line of duty. Support meetings and events are offered throughout the year. C O P S also publishes a printed newsletter three times a year that is mailed to approximately 48,000 survivors and law enforcement personnel each quarter. This newsletter provides important information on upcoming C O P S events, highlights chapter and survivor accomplishments, and shares information important to law enforcement survivors. A monthly email newsletter is also sent from our office covering events, hands-on program registration and scholarship information and deadlines, and other information relevant to the lives of law enforcement survivors. Additionally, C O P S continued to distribute a QuickSeries Pocket Guide that we developed for law enforcement families and co-workers affected by a line of duty death. This guide provides information on understanding grief and trauma, coping strategies, and general information on the many benefits available, such as PSOB benefits, and financial, educational, counseling and support programs. These booklets are sent to survivors from the National Office and are made available to all chapters to distribute when they respond to a line of duty death. Financial assistance is provided by Concerns of Police Survivors to survivors of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty who wish to pursue a course of study beyond high school. Surviving children and spouses of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty are eligible for C O P S scholarships if the survivor is not entitled to a tuition-free education as a state death benefit. In addition to the C O P S Kids/Teens program during the National Police Survivors' Conference, the C O P S Kids Camp, Outward Bound and the Young Adults Camp programs in summer each year, C O P S also offers financial assistance to dependent-aged children who need psychological counseling to help them cope with the trauma inflicted on them through the sudden, often violent, loss of their parent to the law enforcement profession.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

PUBLIC RELATIONS & OUTREACH Public education and awareness is accomplished in part each year during National Police Week, the calendar week that includes May 15, when C O P S promotes blue ribbons tied on car antennas as a reminder to the public that many law enforcement officers have paid the ultimate price and given their lives in the line of duty. It is also to honor those officers who serve and protect our communities every day, putting their lives on the line for us. C O P S also works to educate the public on law enforcement trauma issues through the use of bill boards and PSAs during the year. On January 9, 2017, C O P S and partnering organizations in support of law enforcement officers nationwide promoted the 3rd annual National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day (L E A D). Our nations citizens were called to action in support of law enforcement. Those citizens who appreciate law enforcement and were discouraged about the negative attention being given to law enforcement were encouraged to take time on January 9, to show their support in various ways. Events were held across the country, including rallies, card-making by school children, food deliveries to law enforcement, and many other. C O P S continues with its effort to educate the general public about the organization, its goals, and the issues that C O P S addresses for survivors. Issues such as cop-killer paroles, and the number of officers who die in the line of duty are all information that each and every citizen in this country should know. Additionally, every Christmas holiday season C O P S continues to promote its Project Blue Light campaign, asking citizens, law enforcement families and survivors to shine blue lights in their residence windows to salute the officers who work the streets during the holidays and to remember the families whose officers have been called on to make the supreme sacrifice. Another form of awareness and outreach is accomplished with the C O P S brand and logo through merchandise. By having law enforcement officers and survivors wearing items with the C O P S brand, we have greater name recognition and law enforcement agencies and survivors are more likely to seek our assistance.

Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The Organization was not subject to UBIT for the years ended
