The Foundation monitors its grants through an initial application process and interim/final reporting over the grant period. There is a semi-annual competitive application process in which nonprofits are invited to apply for funding of capital projects. A committee is selected by the Class I Directors to manage the grant application and monitoring process. In the application phase, the monitoring committee reviews the applications, meets with potential grantees, verifies the applicants are 501c3 organizations, and compiles the list of potential grant recipients for the Canale
