Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART VIII, LINE 2	AUXILIARY ENTERPRISES UNRELATED BUSINESS REVENUES Skidmore College has had long term relationships with many cultural institutions that bring their activities to Saratoga Springs during the summer. These institutions include dance companies, orchestras, ballet companies, and other artist groups. These activities enrich the cultural life at Skidmore and the community and are a significant part of the educational experience at Skidmore. The College derives revenue from making its facilities available to the visiting artists and their staff. The expenses and deductions associated with these revenues have always significantly exceeded the revenues. These activities are not reported as unrelated business income since they contribute importantly to the educational mission of the College. During the current reporting period revenues in this category (comprised of room and board charges and fees) amounted to $1,882,277. The College also derives small amounts of revenue from some unrelated activities carried on as part of the larger exempt function activities. These revenues cover part of the College's fixed and variable costs associated with these activities but the expenses and costs properly allocable to these activities have always been in excess of the revenues. Excess revenues in this category in the current reporting period include $91,141 from rental of excess capacity in the stables, $769 from Surrey-Williamson Inn at Skidmore, and $29,081 from Tang Museum Shop at Skidmore. The net losses from these activities have not been reported as unrelated business income or loss.
