Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Bryn Mawr College's mission is to provide a rigorous education and to encourage the pursuit of knowledge as preparation for life and work. Bryn Mawr teaches and values critical, creative and independent habits of thought and expression in an undergraduate liberal arts curriculum for women and in coeducational graduate programs in Arts and Sciences and Social Work and Social Research. Bryn Mawr seeks to sustain a community diverse in nature and democratic in practice, maintain its character as a small residential community which fosters close working relationships between faculty and students, emphasize learning through conversation and collaboration, primary reading, original research and experimentation. The academic and co-curricular experiences fostered by Bryn Mawr, both on campus and in the College's wider setting, encourage students to be responsible citizens who provide service to and leadership for an increasingly interdependent world.

Name: BRYN MAWR COLLEGE

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Instruction Bryn Mawr College's enrollment consists of approximately 1,370 full and part-time undergraduate students and 290 graduate and professional students. In FY2017, Bryn Mawr conferred 332 bachelor's degrees, 82 post-baccalaureate certificates, 79 master's degrees and 19 doctoral degrees. Seventy-four percent of full-time undergraduate students received some form of financial aid. Seventy-one percent received Bryn Mawr-source grant aid, of which the average amount was $32,900. In addition, during fiscal year 2017, the College provided over $4.5 million in subawards to other institutions for instruction in critical languages and mathematics.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Research Since its founding in 1885, the College has maintained its character as a small residential community which fosters close working relationships between faculty and students. The faculty of teacher/scholars emphasizes learning through conversation and collaboration, primary reading, original research and experimentation. The College's faculty research support programs reflect a strong institutional commitment to faculty scholarship and to the relationship between teaching and research.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Public Service and Civic Engagement Bryn Mawr College's Child Study Institute (CSI) and Phebe Anna Thorne School have been serving children, adolescents, and adults in the greater Philadelphia area for more than sixty years. CSI provides psychological testing, therapy/counseling, educational support, and school consultation to children and families in a comfortable and welcoming setting. The Thorne School offers developmentally oriented, child-centered pre-school and kindergarten programs. Civic Engagement collaborates with community-based organizations to prepare students to be socially responsible leaders and citizens through purposeful action, reflection, and learning. A wide variety of programs include providing direct service such as tutoring, tax preparation, mentoring, and leadership training, and reflecting on that service inside and outside of a classroom setting. This dynamic combination of the practical and the academic helps shape students' professional goals, gives them real work experience, and provides the Philadelphia metropolitan area with much-needed services.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	First-class travel may be paid by the College for international flights and rail transportation. Housing: As a condition of employment, the President is required to reside in College-owned housing. The house must be and is used for College business and College-sponsored functions. A housing expense allowance is provided. The estimated value of housing costs for the President is excluded from taxable income but disclosed in Schedule J Column D. Nontaxable benefits: $52,985. The College made a payment with tax gross-up to President Cassidy which appears in Column B(III) on Schedule J of $23,672.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The compensation of officers and key employees is determined by an annual review of current independent salary surveys. The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees approves the compensation of the President and gives final approval to compensation for all other officers and key employees based on the President's recommendations. The President of the College has an employment contract.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	The College reports three different categories of non-fixed payments on Schedule J, Part II. Bonuses are reported on Schedule J, Part II Column B(II). Bonuses are based on a number of variables including but not limited to individual goal achievements as well as operational achievements of the College. At times, bonuses are a one-time payment when an employee has taken on additional temporary duties. The final decision of the bonus amount is determined as part of the overall compensation review and is approved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees for the President of the College and for others by the College President. Taxable income in lieu of College Pension contribution and vacation payouts are reported on Schedule J, Part II Column B(III).
