Part II, Line 3	There was no current year activity related to the easement held by the University The value of this property is carried on the balance sheet at its historical value

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	The Edwin W. Brown Collection includes first English and American editions of books authored, edited, or with prefaces by C. S. Lewis, published essays and lectures of C. S. Lewis, two Lewis manuscripts, and books about C. S. Lewis, as well as first and reprint editions of George MacDonald and first editions of Charles Williams, Dorothy L. Sayers, and Owen Barfield. It also contains several manuscripts, letters, contracts, and photographs. The collection is more valuable in its entirety than the individual parts alone. In addition, it provides enhanced educational opportunities for students and faculty at Taylor University. The cultural, literary, and religious aims of the collection can be expanded through the educational curriculum offerings of lectures and seminars. In fact, Taylor University will have the potential to reach beyond the literary collection and bring C. S. Lewis scholars to the campus.

Part V, Line 4	Endowments provide scholarship/grant opportunities for students, provide educational program opportunities, and provide institutional support for the university and its operations in support of its purpose and mission

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service indicating it is a tax-exempt organization as provided in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal and state income taxes on income related to its exempt purpose. The accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes prescribes the recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. The guidance also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management believes there are no material uncertainties in income taxes. The Organization files the appropriate tax forms in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the state of Indiana. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service or state of Indiana for years before 2013.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The University's board of directors has delegated authority for the formal review of its Form 990 to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee substantively reviewed the Form 990 prior to its filing. In addition, the University's independent CPA firm prepared the Form 990 and then reviewed it with the management team and with the audit committee. The University utilized this process to ensure that its Form 990 received substantive review by directors and professionals with specific knowledge of the University's activities and extensive financial, accounting, and tax expertise. A copy of the Form 990 is provided to the organization's governing body before it is filed with the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The University has adopted a Conflict of Interest Policy that requires directors, officers and key employees to submit an annual conflict of interest disclosure. The annual disclosure requires directors, officers, and key employees to disclose, in writing, any known financial interest that the individual (together with family members) has in any business entity that transacts business with the University. In addition, directors, officers, and key employees are required to immediately disclose any possible conflict of interest that arises mid-year in relation to a proposed transaction. The Conflict of Interest Policy requires that any individual with a conflict be recused from the decision making process, that independent directors or committee members determine that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the University, and the transaction must be approved by a vote of the independent directors or committee members without the participation of any interested individual. The annual conflict disclosure statements are submitted to, and reviewed by, the Audit Committee, composed of independent outside directors. In addition, the executive staff is responsible for monitoring any possible conflict transactions that arise and managing them to ensure that all transactions represent arms' length, fair market value terms for the benefit of the University.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The University has adopted an Executive Compensation and Intermediate Sanctions Policy that ensures that all compensation arrangements with related parties are evaluated and entered at arms' length and that any compensation that is paid to a related party is reasonable and reflects fair market value. The Policy encourages the application of the rebuttable presumption standard of Code Section 4958 and the related Treasury Regulations by (a) excluding any interested party from the decision making process, (b) requiring disinterested board or committee members to obtain and rely upon comparability data when setting the proposed compensation terms, (c) requiring the approval of the transaction in advance by disinterested directors or committee members, and (d) requiring contemporaneous documentation (i.e. minutes) reflecting the decision and the process by which it was made. In the case of the President's compensation, the Executive Committee of the board of directors, composed entirely of independent outside directors, is responsible for ensuring that the process outlined above is applied.
