Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The Wisconsin Bankers Association (WBA) has created three reserves that are not available for use in operations. These reserves serve as a means of ensuring adequate funding for particular needs and obligations of WBA, including a primary reserve to sustain WBA through an unexpected financial crisis, an opportunity reserve to provide start-up funds for new programs and business opportunities, and a capital reserve for the purchase of facilities and equipment that will assist WBA and its staff to better meet the mission of WBA.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is required to assess whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination on the technical merits of the position assuming the taxing authority has full knowledge of all information. If the tax position does not meet the more likely than not recognition threshold, the benefit of that position is not recognized in the financial statements. The Organization has determined there are no amounts to record as assets or liabilities related to uncertain tax positions.

Review and approval. The compensation and benefits arrangement for the WBA President\CEO is reviewed by the compensation committee, who make a recommendation to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors ultimately approves the President\CEO compensation package. Any person with a conflict of interest regarding the compensation, such as the President\CEO, is not involved in the review and approval process. Comparable compensation data. When the compensation committee is considering annual compensation and benefits for the President/CEO, the members review data of comparable compensation in similar organizations. This data includes industry survey information from local and state non-profit associations and national banking trade associations. Documentation. The official meeting minutes of the Compensation Committee and the WBA Board of Directors reflect the review process and decision regarding the compensation arrangement. The WBA CEO also uses market data as well as other association surveys to establish key employee wages and benefits.
