Name: Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design Inc

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design (MIAD) was founded in 1974 and is accredited to offer the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree by the Higher Learning Commission and the National Association of Schools of Art and Design. The college offers five majors to 630 full and part time students: Industrial Design, Communication Design, Illustration, Interior Architecture + Design, and New Studio Practice - Fine Art. Liberal Studies are required, and the College offers numerous minors including Furniture Design, Art Management and Digital Media. In 2017, the College was named a top design college by Graphic Design USA, and its Industrial Design program was ranked among the top ten in the country. MIAD's new Future Designers program brings design projects, technologies and career pathways to area high schools lacking the expertise and resources. It aims to address a nationwide and Milwaukee challenge - underrepresentation of people of color in the design industry, where careers and salaries are robust.

Part I, Line 2	All funds are awarded through the college's financial aid office and posted directly to the students' accounts by the student accounts office. Students may be awarded grant funds on the basis of academic achievement and/or financial need. In each case the student can retain eligibility for funding for as many as eight semesters as a full-time student, provided the student meets the renewal criteria such as grade point average and grade procession as outlined in the student handbook. An individual student may not receive more than the cost of tuition from the institutional grant funds. A reconciliation is done regularly between the two departments/systems to ensure accuracy and proper use of the funds. In addition, an annual audit is performed by an outside accounting firm to review compliance with all federal, state and institutional policies and procedures.
