Part III2. Our organization focuses on donating to families with a member who has very serious or terminal illness. More funds were given to charter members of our club and Aerie members, individuals with no connection to our organization were also served in some manner.

We also aided those with losses to fire or other natural disaster. (page 2)

Part III 4d. Other program services include aid to libraries, 4-H, school projects outside the curriculum, Christmas funds for the needy, etc. It is very difficult to categorize all the entities we donate too. Our Attorney General's Office spells out who we can donate to or not. We must follow these guidelines for charitable donations, or the donation must come from our operating budget. (page 2)

Part VI section B 11b We follow the constitution of our Grand Aerie. At our regular meetings, we publicly discuss any times that we feel could eventually, have the concern of our members. (page 6)

Part VI section B 12c This situation is carefully monitored as we have officers who are employed by various construction entities which may bid on particular projects of our club. We carefully scrutinize all bid letting and actions. (page 6)

Part VI 15 a and b The executive board discusses compensation with trustees and negotiate any change with the employee and other board members.

Part VI section C 19 Our organizations governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are all open records. They are frequently displayed and/or discussed at our general membership meetings. The documents may be viewed at any time through the contacting of an officer. (page 6)
