Part III, Line 1a	The College's collections include works of art that are maintained in the College's galleries and library and loaned to on-campus departments and local entities. These collections are protected and preserved and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed periodically. The College's policy is to capitalize donated works of art at fair value and purchased works of art at cost if not preserved and held for public exhibition or if intended to be sold without proceeds used for purchases of works of art. Of the $7,052,409 and $6,067,409 presented in Other non-current assets on the statements of financial position, $4,565,328 and $4,671,428 as of May 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively, are donated works of art which are being held with the intent of resale and do not meet the definition of a collection.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	Our collections include paintings, prints and sculpture reflecting a myriad of artistic styles donated by individuals to the college for selective public display. The collection serves as an important cultural resource for our students, faculty, staff and community serving to educate and inspire. The College's collections include works of art that are maintained in the college's galleries and library and loaned to on-campus departments and local entities. Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	A ruling from the U S Treasury Department, dated May 19, 1938, states that Ringling School of Art and Design is exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of 101(6) of the Revenue Act of 1936, which is now 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. However, the College's unrelated business income is subject to income tax at corporate rates. The College's policy is to record a liability for any beneficial tax position, excluding any related interest and penalties, when it is more likely than not the position taken by management with respect to a transaction or class of transactions will be overturned by a taxing authority upon examination. Management believes there are no such positions as of May 31, 2017 and May 31, 2016 and, accordingly, no liability has been accrued.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The President is evaluated annually by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees. The Compensation Committee, a sub-committee of the Executive Committee, is responsible for the annual evaluation, compensation, personnel actions and other employment issues related to the appointment of the President. The Committee conducts an annual performance appraisal, collects and evaluates comparative salary data from Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design (AICAD), 990 data, and provides a recommendation for the President's annual compensation to the Executive Committee. The process requires the President to complete a Self-Assessment and the Board of Trustees members to complete performance Assessment Forms. The Compensation Committee reviews the assessment and prepares a recommendation for the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee reviews the deliberations with the Board of Trustees. The President evaluates and determines the compensation of each Senior Officer using AICAD data and the results of the performance review. The Vice President for Finance and Administration, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Vice President for Human and Organizational Development, the Vice President for Advancement, and the Vice President for Student Life are Senior Officers. The College evaluates the effectiveness of staff through the performance evaluation process. Each Senior Officer completes an annual report for the President's review. The President reviews the comparative data for each of the Senior Officers with the Compensation Committee. Documentation includes notes taken at the Compensation Committee meetings of data review and deliberations. Annual assessment documents for the President are also maintained.
