990 page 1. Lines 20 and 22 Report of last year's assets.

Last summer I reported total assets of $66065.01 as of 6/30/16 but our actual assets were $66100.01.

What happened was that a reimbursement check for $35 that I sent to a college student in May 2016 did not get cashed promptly. I could not ask about it until September when the student said they would cash it. It did not get straightened out until February 2017 when we declared it lost cause and I included the reimbursement in a check for another reimbursement. I tried to indicate this on the form in lines 20 and 22 but the form did not allow both numbers to be written out fully.

Part III line 4e Our total program expenses are listed at $186154.61 which if added to our office expenses would give us much higher expenses than are listed on the form ($199418). The difference is that some of our programs pay a management fee to the ECRI Ed Fund. This year the management fees paid by Energize RI and the Green Infrastructure Coalition totaled $14700. I remove these fees from the total income and expenses because I do not believe it appropriate to double count money. They clearly are program expenses but it is simply a transfer internally and not additional income so they are listed as program expenses but not in the final totals. I put a note like this one in our 990 each year.

Part VI line 7a Our sister organization The Environment Council of Rhode Island is a 501c4 coalition of environmental groups with about 60 member organizations. The members of ECRI elect the Executive committee (the officers) and the officers of ECRI are also the entire board of the 501c3 ECRI Education Fund

7b We often bring major Ed Fund decisions to all of the members of ECRI.

Part VI B 11 I email a copy of the 990 and all of its schedules to the board and they formally sign off on it in a vote at their meeting.

Part VII One of the officers, Kenneth Filarski, is an architect. His professional expertise is valuable to the two coalitions we serve as fiscal agent for. Each of those coalitions distributes money to its member organizations to cover staff time. We send money to Clean Water Fund for example and then CWfF pays its staff for coalition work. Mr Filarski does not work for a non profit so the money for his time on coalition work goes directly to him. It is reported on a 1099. All of the other partners in our programs are NGOs.
