Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt X, Line 2	The organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501-C-3 of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for years ending June 30, 2016 and 2015. The organization is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2013.
