The Ohio County Schools Foundation is a publicly supported organization because it was started and continues to grow only through public donations. The organizations sole purpose is to provide students graduating from Ohio County Public Schools grant and scholarship money for education after high school graduation. A small amount of other grants are awarded for educational purposes only. The governing body is made up of employees from the Ohio County Board of Education, Ohio County Schools and other local community members. Funds are received only through public donation and any interest received from investments made by a local bank on behalf of the Foundation go towards the same scholarships. The organization pays no employees and is strictly a volunteer organization.
