United Way is proud of the stories and results of our work in Health, Education and Financial Stability. We continue to fight for the most vulnerable among us, by funding efforts to fight hunger and homelessness, and our efforts like the ALICE (Asset Limited Income Constrained Employed) report that shine a light on the working individuals and families in every town in Greater New Haven that are working hard but not making ends meet. We brought new services to our region, like three new free tax preparation centers that help lower income households save money and maximize their credits. And we were there to help long-standing efforts when they needed it the most, like helping bring healthy meals to students that were going without food and struggling to attend New Haven Adult Education. In addition to executing on our community change goals, United Way generates, manages, and distributes significant financial resources from the region. United Way raises financial resources year round through workplace-based and community campaigns, as well as through government and foundation grants. Funds raised for United Way, largely through significant efforts of community volunteers, support local programs and projects that can demonstrate measurable results and help us leverage public and private dollars to benefit Greater New Haven. More information about United Way's results for our community can be found at www.uwgnh.org/report

Name: United Way of Greater New Haven Inc

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

More kids are doing better in school and life. Children's academic success is impacted by what happens before and after the school day. United Way provides $225,000 in FY17 in grants to high-quality out-of-school time programs for youth in New Haven, Hamden, and West Haven. Our grantmaking supports time to build literacy and numeracy - through tutoring, exploration, and STEM - and efforts to promote resiliency and social-emotional well-being. In addition, United Way makes possible high-quality, school-based after school programs at three New Haven Public Schools, a benefit to children and working parents that wouldn't be possible without our administrative support. United Way is also embedded in the school day at eight New Haven schools through the Trauma Coalition. The statistic is startling: 90% of New Haven students have been exposed to trauma. Research shows that exposure to trauma can have long term effects - developmental delays, neurological damage, and chronic diseases - and that we can take actions to protect children and build resiliency. United Way and community partners launched the New Haven Trauma Coalition to provide a versatile approach within schools that includes yoga, meditation, and dancing, as well as clinical workers. This focus on prevention helps children avoid bigger issues down the road. Through United Way's work in the New Haven Trauma Coalition we have served 1,239 students this past school year.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

More people who were homeless are now in stable, safe housing As the backbone of the Greater New Haven Coordinated Access Network, United Way is at the center of a collective effort of providers and stakeholders across nineteen towns that streamlines and standardizes the process for individuals and families to access assistance The goal is to rapidly end each person's homelessness by connecting them with appropriate housing and resources as quickly as possible Over a 12-month period, 14,500 calls from people concerned about becoming homeless were placed from Greater New Haven to 2-1-1, United Way of CT's free 24/7 information and referral line Our team of partners and staff assessed over 2,300 of those households facing homelessness in FY17 Through our collaborative efforts, we have housed 951 families, individuals, and youths in 2 5 years As keeping people out of homelessness is our greatest hope, and the most effective way to prevent future episodes of homelessness, we have diverted nearly 30% of families at the door of shelter by providing support and services

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

More young children across our region have benefitted from nurturing parenting and high-quality early learning and care. United Way champions Secure Start, a Success By 6 initiative that provides classes to help parents, caregivers and child care providers create strong, healthy relationships with young children. An independent evaluation of the initiative shows that parents who participate have increased satisfaction with parenting and fewer depressive symptoms. This complements another Success By 6 priority to provide children with high-quality early care and education. In support of this goal, United Way manages an Early Head Start program through a grant funded by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services that provides eighty-eight infants and toddlers and their families full-day, full-year child care and comprehensive services through partnership with five providers across our region.
