| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15 | In preparation for APHA's annual review of its Executive Director, the Personnel Committee provides the Executive Board members with a copy of their evaluation of the Executive Director's outlined current year objectives, the Executive Director's own self-evaluation, the results of a staff survey, if applicable (these are only conducted every few years), and an independent executive compensation analysis. The Personnel Committee then reviews the Executive Board's evaluation of the Executive Director. After the results are compiled, then there is a review of the executive compensation analysis. The compensation vendor is available to answer any questions from the analysis. The analysis uses information about APHA such as the type of membership of the association, the Association's area of focus, annual gross revenues, the Association's location, and the tenure of the Executive Director in order to arrive at a predicted total compensation amount. Total compensation analysis is defined as base salary, bonus, cash value, deferred compensation, supplemental retirement and pension amounts. |
