Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

#1 In School Programs DreamYard provides over a hundred and fifty residencies and after- school companies at 45 public schools throughout the Bronx reaching over 8,500 students annually All In School Programs seek to build arts programs, increase teacher skills and knowledge and use the arts as a tool to support curriculum and inspire learning Additionally, we provide Creative Arts Coaching, which supports cohorts of classroom teacher to develop arts integration skills and lessons Our network of public schools, the Bronx Arts Learning Community, helps administrators and teachers become leaders and arts advocates Through a series of workshops, we provide them with the skills to assess the impact of their schools arts programs and plan, develop and raise funds to work toward reaching 100% of their students annually with high-quality arts education programs

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

#2 Art Center Programs - We offer nationally recognized classes in visual art, theater, poetry, dance, arts activism, photography/video, music and audio production, design, and fashion. Through Art Center programs, students gain access to the high quality arts workshops, leadership development opportunities, and academic and social supports such as college advisory, social work services, internships and mentorship opportunities. We have also, in response to community request, developed a full four day a week K-5th grade arts and social justice program for 60 Bronx families. Through a unique integration of arts and digital learning projects and social justice pedagogy, Art Center participants are also learning essential 21st century digital skills, preparing themselves for future careers and helping to close the digital gap that exists between our community and others with more prevalent digital tools and programs. Programs run after-school, all day on Saturdays and throughout the summer. The Art Center is a safe community space for youth and artists to experiment, spend time working on independent projects, and explore creative interests.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

#3 DreamYard Preparatory High School A New Visions for Public School sponsored arts integration public high school in the South Bronx, the school has a mission to cultivate Scholarship, Artistry, and Character within its 350 students so that they develop into successful individuals and responsible citizens. DreamYard Prep provides a rigorous arts- integrated curriculum that emphasizes problem solving and critical thinking while deepening students understanding of all subject areas. Community, creativity, restorative practices and leadership inform a school culture that nurtures the growth of articulate and thoughtful adults. Data is showing that the school is effectively using the arts to meet New York State education standards. DreamYard Prep has a 10% higher graduation rate than the average Bronx high school.
