Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	MANAGEMENT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR ANNUALLY REPORTING ANY INTEREST OR DEALINGS WHICH COULD GIVE RISE TO A CONFLICT OF INTEREST PER THE FOLLOWING POLICY Conflicts of Interest Employees, officers, agents and governors must act in the best interests of the League. They must refrain from engaging in any activity or having a personal interest that presents a "conflict of interest." A conflict of interest occurs when a personal interest interferes, or appears to interfere, with the interests of the League. A conflict of interest can arise whenever an officer, agent, governor or employee, takes action or has an interest that prevents one from performing their League duties and responsibilities honestly, objectively and effectively. For example, No employee, officer, agent or governor shall use his or her position with the League to influence a transaction with a supplier or customer in which such person has any personal interest, other than a financial interest representing less than one percent (1%) of the outstanding shares of a publicly-held company. It is the Board of Governors' responsibility to disclose any transaction or relationship that reasonably could be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest to the Commissioner or Board of Governors (or any committee thereof to which the Board of Governors has delegated responsibility for ensuring compliance with the Code), who shall be responsible for determining whether such transaction or relationship constitutes a conflict of interest. The League has a Whistleblower policy that requires all governors, officers, and employees to comply with the Code of Conduct, and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this policy. The commissioner or chairman of the Board evaluates suspected violations of the code, determines if an informal inquiry or formal investigation is required and initiates the action, reports the results of the inquiry or investigation with a recommendation as to disposition of the matter to the Commissioner or Board of governors or authorized committee thereof, to assure compliance with the Code. The League will determine and implement disciplinary measures against any employee, agent, governor or league officers who has violated the code. Disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to reprimands, warnings, probation or suspension without pay, or discharge.
