Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The College President is required, as a condition of employment, to live at the College's presidential residence. This benefit was not included in taxable compensation as it met the requirements for exclusion under Internal Revenue Code Section 119(d). It was required as a condition of employment, for the convenience of the employer, and on or near the campus. The College provides country club dues for the College President and is included in taxable compensation. The College provided residence aid for the college president and was included in taxable compensation. The College provided a travel benefit to President Ambar for her husband, Dr. Saladin Ambar. It was included in taxable income.
Part I, Line 7	The compensation committee of the board of trustees recommends the president's bonus to the full board for approval. The bonus was awarded based on metrics that needed to be achieved during the year which is being evaluated. Bonuses for senior officers are determined by the president based upon performance to established goals identified at the beginning of the year. Each cabinet member's performance is evaluated and documented via the performance appraisal process and the allocation of bonuses upon available resources.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Members of the Board of Trustees and members of committees thereof, including officers and key employees, are required to sign a conflict of interest statement annually. The conflict of interest statements are maintained and monitored within the Office of the President at the College. In addition, the Cabinet must sign the College's staff handbook annually that deals with conflict of interest as a matter of policy. The signed document is stored within the HR department. Potential conflicts identified are presented to the Chair of the Board of Trustees who consults with the President and the Chief financial Officer at the College who reviews the information provided. Additional information is requested when necessary. All new trustees are evaluated by the full Board of Trustees, the President and the CFO for potential conflicts. Any identified conflicts are addressed immediately. Board members will abstain from voting on such matters in which they have identified a conflict.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The compensation for the president was set in 2013 after an independent consultant, Corporate Compensation Partners, LLC, conducted a compensation study, including a review of peer institutions. The report was utilized by the Trustee compensation committee in setting the salary for the president with a 5 year contract that started in 2013. Compensation of the Sr. Officers/Cabinet is calculated by benchmarking the salaries of those similar positions within our group of peers and current pay scales. The College uses several compensation tools to appropriately benchmark these salaries, such as CUPA, Payscale and Salaries.com. The salary comparison is performed by the Human Resources Office and provided to the President. The President reviews the information and the compensation is determined. The compensation policy is documented in the board minutes.
