Name: EASTER SEALS EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Early Childhood Early Intervention provides critically needed services to children with disabilities or developmental delays from birth to age three in Berks County, the Lehigh Valley and the Poconos. Easter Seals' mission extends to helping families by giving them emotional and educational tools to best support their special children. Our licensed therapists provide physical, occupational, speech and vision therapy as well as educational support from certified early childhood and special education teachers in hundreds of homes throughout the region. During fiscal year 2016-2017, 841 children and their families received early intervention services from Easter Seals Eastern Pennsylvania.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Medical Rehabilitation OutPatient Therapies provide physical, occupational and speech therapy for children and young adults on an outpatient basis. We are committed to maximizing each individual's potential through medically sound and proven rehabilitation therapies. These therapies address the factors that hinder an individual's growth and functioning. In fiscal year 2016-2017, Easter Seals provided medical rehabilitation to 210 people in Berks County.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Contracted Services School and Community Support Services help individuals with special needs through local schools and other organizations. We provide occupational, physical and speech therapy in school districts and an equipment loan program. During fiscal year 2016-2017, Easter Seals provided contracted services to approximately 97 children in the Lehigh Valley and Berks County.

Clinical Services Specialty Medical Clinics bring the services of top-quality medical and surgical specialists to work with children with complex medical needs. Our Pediatric Neurology Clinic treats children with neurological issues and diagnoses certain syndromes and disorders and provides diagnostic testing, evaluations and treatment for children with neurological disorders. Orthopedic Clinics provide both early screening and referrals to top notch orthopedic surgeons along with diagnosis and medical/surgical treatment for all types of orthopedic issues. The Pediatric Feeding Clinic help children who have problems such as difficulty chewing or swallowing, aversion to certain food textures, anxiety during mealtime, picky eaters and children on the road to obesity or anorexia. These clinics are provided at no cost to the consumer and enable participants to access services which otherwise would not be available locally. Many of our families do not have the means to travel to large metropolitan medical centers like Philadelphia. For these families, having access to top-quality medical care that is close to home gives their special needs child a chance at a better, more independent future. In fiscal year 2016-2017, Easter Seals provided specialty medical care to 395 adults and children in the Berks County area.

(Code) (Expenses $ 359,935 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 248,922)

Recreation Camping and recreation programs in the Lehigh Valley, Berks County, Northeast Pennsylvania and the Poconos give children - with and without disabilities - a chance for fun, recreation and socialization in a safe and supportive environment. Easter Seals has been providing camping programs for children with disabilities and other special needs as far back as the early 1940s. Today, our Camp Lily day camp programs in the Lehigh Valley and Berks County allow children to spread their wings and make new friends while providing much needed respite for families. Our residential summer camp program, Growing Green, held on the campus of the Pocono Environmental Education Center (PEEC), blends occupational, educational and recreational experiences in week-long sessions. Saturday Respite offers families time to care for themselves while their children and teens are in a safe and supportive environment. Lehigh Valley Saturday respite is held twice a month on the first and third Saturday of each month at the JCC in Allentown. Saturday Respite is also offered in Berks County on the second Saturday of each month. Hang Time and Fit Club are weeknight programs for teens and young adults with special needs age 12-21 that offer a fun-filled atmosphere where lasting friendships are made. Activities include programs with local martial artists, art teachers, personal trainers and yoga instructors and encourage socialization. Fit Club Bowling is held in the Lehigh Valley, offering teens and young adults the opportunity to socialize in the community. In fiscal year 2016-2017, Easter Seals provided camping and recreation programs for 478 children and their families.

Fiscal Administration Easter Seals provides fiscal administration for family directed support programs and transportation for Northampton and Lehigh counties. These programs are pass through programs where pre-approved funds are paid to the consumers' families on behalf of the counties to allow consumers to live, work and play in their community. The transportation fiscal administration program submits billing to the state on behalf of LANta, for transportation for people with disabilities. During fiscal year 2016-2017, 708 consumers and their families received services from this program.

(Code) (Expenses $ 315,273 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 309,796)

Community Habilitation Transitional/Vocational - LEAP (Learning Enrichment and Partnerships) is offered during the school year and as a summer program at numerous locations in Berks County and the Lehigh Valley. Current high school students are provided the opportunity to gain skills and experience in networking, interviewing, career development and community exploration. Community Inclusion - M-Power is an individual and small group program offered year-round in Berks County, the Lehigh Valley and surrounding communities. All services are provided in the community and scheduling is individualized based on participant needs. Activities include volunteering at local nonprofits, exploring recreational and social opportunities, and developing independent living skills including transportation, financial literacy, and household management. During the fiscal year 2016-2017, 51 consumers and their families received services from these programs in Berks County and Lehigh Valley.

(Code) (Expenses $ 19,443 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Child Development Screenings Make the First Five Count offers free developmental screenings for children age five and under using the Ages and Stages Questionnaire. Brain development is at its peak during this period of a child's life, and identifying developmental delays and disabilities is paramount in order to intervene when the most good can be done. Parents and caregivers can access the questionnaire on our website. Results are reviewed by our child development specialist who contacts the family with the results and recommends next steps. We also partner with several child-serving organizations to provide onsite assessments, referrals to local resources, and professional training. During fiscal year 2016-2017, 305 child development screenings were provided to consumers and their families in this program in the Lehigh Valley and Berks Counties.
