Part X, Line 2	Generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America require financial statement accounting and recognition for uncertain income tax positions taken or expected to be taken by organizations which file annual Form 990 and related returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The School's Form 990 and related return filings are subject to audit by the IRS. The School's open audit periods are for FYE's 2014-2017. Management believes that it is in compliance with current income tax laws and that it has not taken any uncertain income tax positions.

Part I, Line 2	Our Tuition Assistance Fund was established to assist qualifying families who have sacrificed to make Christian education a priority in their family. The fund is financed through contributions from interested individuals, school fund-raisers, the school's general operating fund, and funding through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program and Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit Program. This application is considered confidential and will be reviewed only by those serving on the Variable Tuition Assistance Committee. Plumstead Christian School also utilizes an independent service called FACTS Grant and Aid Assessment. Based on the information submitted in the FACTS application, FACTS provides the school with an independent, confidential assessment of a family's ability to pay for educational expenses. In order for PCS to consider an application for tuition assistance, all of the requirements must be met by the deadline dates to give FACTS Grant and Aid Assessment and the Variable Tuition Assistance Committee adequate time to process the applications and allocate any available funds. Plumstead Christian School admits students of any race, color, or national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students at the school. Plumstead Christian School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admission policy, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.
