| Part IV, Section D, Line 2Organizaition Maintained ARelationship with SupportedOrgs | As of fiscal year ended June 30, 2017 the Foundation Board did not have a Stetson University Trustee or Officer serving. However at the October 2017 Board meeting, the University's CFO, recommended by the President of the University, was elected a board member of the Foundation. Additionally, some of the Foundation directors are on the Accounting Board of Advisers to Stetson University and The Family Enterprise Center Board of Stetson University. The Foundation also currently has three Stetson School of Business Administration Faculty members on its Board, including the Dean of the Stetson School of Business Administration. In addition to the current faculty two retired Stetson School of Business Administration Faculty members serve on the Foundation Board. Two of the Foundation board members have previously served consecutively as Vice President of Finance for the University. The Bylaws have been amended to include Article IV, Directors, "that an officer, trustee, or director of Stetson University will be one of the Directors of the Business School Foundation to be recommended by the President of Stetson University and voted on by the board of directors. In the event this individual is not selected, the standing board of directors shall request that the President of Stetson University provide an alternate and the process shall continue until a nominee is selected." |

| Part IV, Section D, Line 3 RoleThe Organization's SupportedOrgs Played | Generally 20% of the revenue of the Foundation comes directly from a charitable trust managed by SunTrust Bank as Trustee. The Stetson Business School Foundation sets the general guidelines for the investments but SunTrust Bank as Investment Manager makes the actual investment decisions. Currently the Treasurer of the Foundation is a faculty professor with the authority to approve grants to faculty and students and distribute scholarship funds to the University. Requests for faculty research and travel support and student support are first approved by the Dean of the School of Business Administration or his designee. Student scholarship recipients are recommended by the Stetson University School of Business Administration faculty and/or the Stetson University Office of Financial Planning. |

| Part V, Section D, Line 8Distributions To AttentiveSupported Organizations | The Organization is responsive to the University, and the University is attentive to the Organization. The Organization's sole supported organization is the University. Additionally, the Organization and the University have had long-time relations. Since its inception in 1972, the Organization has maintained, and continues to maintain, a close and continuous working relationship with the University's School of Business Administration. As described previously, at a minimum, the dean, two faculty members, and two alumni are part of the Board. Additionally, the University's President nominates a member of the Organization's Board. Further, since its inception, the Organization has only made distributions to or on behalf of the School, and to or on behalf of members of the charitable class benefited by the School. The Organization is listed a source of scholarships on the University's website and printed literature. |
