Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The foundation is an organization exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is generally not subject to federal income taxes. Contributions to the foundation are deductible for tax purposes by the donor, subject to the normal limitations imposed by the taxing authorities. However, the foundation is subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption. Accordingly, the foundation recorded federal and state income tax liabilities of $0 and $41,708 for the years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively, primarily originating from certain investments in private capital. The income tax expense is reported on the Consolidated Statements of Activities as a reduction in investment income. The foundation recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs.

Part VII Supplemental Information

Provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R (see instructions)

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule R, Part II	The University of Alaska does not meet the definition of a 'related organization' for required reporting on Form 990, Schedule R. Although the University is supported by the University of Alaska Foundation, the Foundation is a public charity under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(iv) rather than under Section 509(a)(3). The University of Alaska Foundation is voluntarily reporting data upon Part VII and Schedule R as though there were a 509(a)(3) supporting/supported relationship in place with the University because management believes that donors and other readers of the Form 990 have an expectation that this information will be included on this Form 990.
