Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

VNA Alliance is an independent, voluntary, nonprofit home health agency licensed in Pennsylvania. All services are available without regard to race, religion, creed, color, age, ancestry, national origin, sex, sexual preference, lifestyle, socioeconomic status, veteran's status or handicap. The agency strives to operate in a Christian manner in all interactions with consumers, staff, and the community. The provision of care to consumers recognizes and supports consumers' rights and the inherent worth and dignity of each individual. Care is provided in a holistic, comprehensive manner that helps consumers achieve their desired quality of life and functional outcomes. Service to the community is achieved through responsive consumer care, caregiver support and education. Working as an interdisciplinary team, staff respect and support each other. Continuous quality improvement is integral to all agency functions with emphasis on employee development, risk management, strategic planning and organizational performance. The agency seeks to provide care to all consumers in need of its services while recognizing its goal to maintain financial viability. Service delivery is based on the belief that quality health care can be delivered using efficient, effective and ethical business practices. Approximately 2,228 persons were served with an average daily census of 273 patients. A total of approximately 35,293 (including 102 non-billable) visits were completed by various disciplines. Caregiver assistance and support is another identified need VNA Alliance addresses by providing training and information regarding health care concerns for the geriatric and difficult-to-deal with individuals, such as those with dementia or Alzheimer's disease. We also service the corporate community through health and wellness initiatives including speaking engagements and flu clinics for agency residents and employees. VNA Alliance continues to provide a wealth of community services to the residents, organizations and various groups in Mercer, Crawford, and Venango Counties and additionally reach communities in Erie County. We have gained recognition as an agency that is respected as a contributing member of the community, truly making a difference in the lives of those residing in our geographical boundaries. The focus of our community engagement is geared primarily towards educating and screening the retirement and low-income populations, as these groups seem to have the greatest need regarding health screening and health education. We work closely with individuals who provide direct hands-on care or oversee the health care of these populations as well as general potential consumers of health care services in our communities. Additionally, as part of the prevention efforts for the deterioration of existing health conditions, VNA Alliance provides telehealth monitoring free of charge to patients with chronic diseases like congestive heart failure. Telehealth monitoring is a free service to the community. VNAA utilizes approximately 20 telehealth units a month with patients. VNA Alliance Community Liaisons have provided the following services: Blood pressure screenings for St. Paul's Colony residents, Flu clinics. Provision of approximately 250 flu vaccines to St. Paul's Homes Heritage Assisted Living residents, St. Paul's Homes Greenville Ridgewood residents, St. Paul's Homes Shenango Valley Ridgewood residents, St. Paul's Homes Cottage Colony residents, Wesbury Retirement Community Assisted Living and Independent Living residents, and staff. Liaisons utilize educational materials in Meadville Medical Center and Grove City Medical Centers on CHF and COPD. Cross training educational programs to professionals in Crawford and Mercer County at the LINK collaborative at Area Agencies on Aging, as well as education on CHF and heart health on social media. Community trainings include provision of approximately 70 hours of community education while serving over 4,000 individuals. Multiple engagements at various senior centers within the geographical territory served were completed. VNA Alliance is recognized as a wealth of information for local skilled nursing facilities, assisted living facilities and personal care homes in the community, frequently advising and assisting them to meet the needs of their residents. VNA Alliance employees supported the community by collecting school supplies for our local elementary school. In addition, over the winter, a mitten tree was also assembled for the local students. During the Thanksgiving holiday season the agency was instrumental in gathering food supplies to donate to our local Family Services food pantry for distribution to families in need.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation as described in Section (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) and has been recognized as tax exempt under Section 501(a) of the Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been provided. The Organization follows the guidance for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an organization's financial statements that prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. The guidance also addresses derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, and disclosures. Management has determined that this guidance had no material effect on the financial statements. The Organization's policy is to recognize interest related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. There were no interest or penalties recognized on the statements of operations and changes in net assets as a result of this guidance. Generally, tax returns for years ended June 30, 2014, and thereafter remain subject to examination by federal and state authorities.

Updates on corporate compliance are addressed in scheduled meetings during the year with all staff (including management). Specific corporate compliance goals and objectives are reviewed and evaluated on an ongoing basis during the year with the corporate compliance officer. Additionally, board members are required to disclose any potential conflict of interest prior to discussion on a topic where a conflict may exist. The Board will determine if a conflict exists and act accordingly, which may include the conflicted board member recusing himself/herself from discussion and any votes related to the matter.
