Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b, Review of Form 990:

The content of the Form 990 and its schedules was reviewed with the Board at its last regular meeting prior to filing of the Form 990 return.

The financial statements that underlie the Form 990 were reviewed with the Board at its last meeting, and with the Finance Committee prior to completion of the final return. A complete copy of the filed return will be provided to each Board member.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15a, Determination of Executive Compensation:

The compensation of the Executive Director is based on review of performance in preparation for completion of the Director's contract.

Review is performed by the entire Board in Executive session led by the Board President. A three-year contract term was agreed to at the April 2016 Board Meeting. Any change to the contract would be reviewed by the entire Board. Actual compensation is reviewed monthly by the Board President and presented in the financial information reviewed with the entire Board at its regular meetings.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19, Public Disclosure of Governing Documents, Policy, and Financial Information:

We did not have any requests for access to governing documents, conflict of interest policies, or financial statements this year, other than in submission of copies of tax returns to other regulatory agencies. We do file a complete copy of all such documents with the NM Attorney General in their online system, and this is available for access by the general public and any other interested party. We retain a copy of all such documents in our office for use in making copies available for any who may ask, and are working to provide further access to such information on our website.

Part VI, Section C, Line 20: The organization's books and records are maintained at the Heritage Area headquarters, which is located at 848 State Road 68, Alcalde, NM 87511. Telephone: 505-852-0030.

Financial Records are in control of Thomas A. Romero, Executive Director
