Name: Pathways Vermont Inc

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Organization participates in a Social Security Administration program for some of the clients who receive social security benefits. These funds are held in a separate account with TD Bank. One employee within the Business Office has primary responsibility for managing this program. The ORganization uses a separate Quick Books software module to track all income and expense on an individual basis for each client for whom the ORganization provides Representative Payee Services. Income Expense reports can be published for clients at any time, should an individual wish to see more detail. Individual client files for invoices and / or written requests for each expense are maintained by the Organization. The service is provided to clients at no charge. Generally, expenses fall into the following categories: Rent, Electric, Heat, Telephone & Telecommunications, Medical, Personal, OTHER. Clients agree to a budget plan for the month to cover these expenses. The ORganization reports all expenditures to SSA on an annual basis.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Pathways recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not to be sustained. Management has determined that Pathways had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition or disclosure. Pathways is no longer subject to examinations by the applicable taxing jurisdictions for periods prior to June 30, 2014.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization's Conflict of interest policy applies to any director, principal officer or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers. Such a person has a duty to disclose any actual or possible conflict of interest, providing all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. The chairperson of the Board or committee may, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. Following due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine if it is reasonable to proceed with an alternative arrangement or transaction that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If an alternative is not reasonably possible, the governing board or committee shall determine, by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, if the transaction or arrangement is in the best interests of the organization. The minutes of the governing board and all committees will contain the names of individuals who disclosed a financial interest, the nature of the financial interest and any action taken as to whether a conflict of interest existed. The names of all persons present for the discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the discussion, and the record of votes taken are also documented in the minutes of the meetings. Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers will annually sign a statement and questionnaire attesting to receipt of the conflict of interest policy, comprehension of the policy and agreement to comply with the policy.
