CCC Foundation management prepared the tax year 2016 Form 990. CCC Foundation management reviews the tax form and provides it to the CCC Foundation Board of Directors prior to filing the tax form. Each member received a copy to pre-review and then was given an opportunity to ask questions about the report. Each member completed their review of the form on or before November 13, 2017.

CCC Foundation's Board of Directors ("Board") approved its conflict of interest policy on July 21, 2009 based on discussions with its external auditors at that time. As stated in Article I of the policy, the policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations. Article III, paragraph 2 provides assistance to the Board on determining whether an event or transaction causes a conflict of interest to exist. Finally, Article VII provides for periodic reviews of events, transactions, compensation, and relationships to ensure that they conform to the Foundation's written policies, are the result of arm's length bargaining, and do not result in an excess benefit transaction. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board or Committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board or Committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.
