Section A. Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employees

1a Complete this table for all persons required to be listed. Report compensation for the calendar year ending with or within the organization's tax year.

- List all of the organization's current officers, directors, trustees (whether individuals or organizations), regardless of amount of compensation. Enter -0- in columns (D), (E), and (F) if no compensation was paid.
- List all of the organization's current key employees, if any. See instructions for definition of "key employee."
- List the organization's five current highest compensated employees (other than an officer, director, trustee or key employee) who received reportable compensation (Box 5 of Form W-2 and/or Box 7 of Form 1099-MISC) of more than $100,000 from the organization and any related organizations.
- List all of the organization's former officers, key employees, or highest compensated employees who received more than $100,000 of reportable compensation from the organization and any related organizations.
- List all of the organization's former directors or trustees that received, in the capacity as a former director or trustee of the organization, more than $10,000 of reportable compensation from the organization and any related organizations.

List persons in the following order: individual trustees or directors; institutional trustees; officers; key employees; highest compensated employees; and former such persons.

☐ Check this box if neither the organization nor any related organization compensated any current officer, director, or trustee

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The HHCS Unaccompanied Children Initiative provides a culturally competent continuum of care from group homes to a therapeutic residential environment for unaccompanied immigrant children who need to be reunited with families or offered legal protections. In addition, the department provides rehabilitative residential alternatives to juvenile detention in Cook County and provides transitional housing to homeless youth, ages 18-24. In fiscal year 2017, over 2,700 individuals were housed in protective residential settings.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

HHCS FamilyWorks program is a collaboration with the Chicago Housing Authority to deliver comprehensive case management services to public housing residents through a team approach consisting of housing, employment, adult education, clinical, and other needed services. FamilyWorks serves all members of the household including youth and seniors. The team carries out a number of activities to positively engage public housing residents in services that lead to greater self-sufficiency starting with an initial assessment of housing and employment needs and barriers. The assessment leads to the development of individual service plans. These plans detail employment housing, support and clinical service needs as well as family needs that encompass the children's positive development. The team also works with families on lease issues and develops supports that help individuals meet work requirements. In fiscal year 2017, over 4,0000 individuals and families were served through the FamilyWorks program of HHCS.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Building Stable Communities (BSC) provides supportive housing for families and individuals in their transition from homelessness to permanent housing. Using a strengths-based family case management model, BSC provides intensive case management, housing location, rental assistance, financial literacy, child development, parenting support, job readiness and placement, life-skills development, and follow-up services. BSC housing consists of scattered-site transitional housing. In fiscal year 2017, BSC served approximately 240 households, which included over 550 adults and children.

| Part X, Line 2   | The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Agency may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Agency, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Management has determined that there are no uncertain tax positions during the reporting periods covered by these financial statements. The Agency's tax filings are generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for tax years before 2014. |

| Part I, Line 2   | The program office monitors and evaluates the organization's progress towards renting the units of housing to eligible participants. HUD required rent certifications are reviewed to ensure compliance with fair market values. Participant case files are reviewed and assessed, prearranged monitoring visits are scheduled, technical assistance is provided, and the Finance Office monitors the agencies' cash flow needs. The agencies are required to comply with OMB Circular A-133 or agreed upon procedures. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 12c | All members of the Heartland Alliance Board of Directors, as well as members of the organization's subsidiary Boards of Directors, annually sign a conflict of interest policy, copies of which are retained in the President's office. In addition, all Heartland Alliance senior management, that includes its members of its Business Office Leadership Team (BOLT), Business Initiative &amp; Resource Development (BIRD), and Executive Team are required to annually sign the conflict of interest policy. A copy of the Board of Directors policy is posted on a password protected portion of the organization's website, designated for board members. A copy of the policy for management is posted on the organization's intranet. Policy requires disclosure of any situation in which there may be even an appearance of potential conflict of interest. When appropriate, members of the Board of Directors, or senior management, recuse themselves from decision-making if there is any conflict of interest. Relative to board of committee actions, this is reflected in the meeting minutes. The policy is reviewed regularly by the Chief Corporate Compliance Officer of the organization. Additional monitoring is performed by the organization's executive team and the Risk Policy Committee of the Board of Directors. |
