Part X, Line 2	The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the College is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is also exempt from state income tax. However any unrelated business income may be subject to taxation. The College follows the accounting standards for contingencies in evaluating uncertain tax positions. The guidance prescribes recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return that are not certain to be realized. No liability has been recognized by the College by uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2017 and 2016. The College's tax returns are subject to review and examination by Federal and State authorities. The tax returns for the current year as well as fiscal years 2014 and thereafter are open to examination by Federal and State authorities.

Part I, Line 2	To ensure our grants and scholarships are used for the proper purposes the Edgewood College Financial Aid Office performs regular maintenance and reconciliations with our business office monitoring that all funds awarded to a particular student are being properly credited to their student account. Any changes or adjustments to original awards that affect grant and scholarship funding are made within Powerfaids, the financial aid software program. These changes to awards are electronically transmitted at least weekly to the business office. The resulting changes are then displayed on their student account. The Financial Aid Office has the ability to generate reports as needed for monitoring and reconciliation purposes. These reports are compared to reports generated by the Business Office to ensure that all program amounts are accurately reflected. Additionally, we have a yearly audit performed by an outside accounting firm guaranteeing we are staying in compliance with all federal, state and institutional policies and procedures as well as assuring funding is being used as intended.
