Part I, Line 2	Through funding from the Productive Living Board (PLB), client assistance is provided to qualifying individuals that have people with developmental disabilities living with them through the organization's respite (in home residential) project. Before each fiscal year, registered families complete a survey indicating their current situation and need for respite services. Participants' eligibility is then verified by the PLB. Families then submit vouchers with their number of qualifying hours. The organization spot checks that the hours submitted are reasonable, contacts some providers to ensure the services took place, and manages the overall award provided from the PLB.
