Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

With over 1.9 million visitors and $329.57 million in economic impact annually, the tourism industry has been recognized as an integral component in the development and continued prosperity of the Dubuque region. The reinvention of Iowa's first city over the past 15 years has been a catalyst for the evolution of the Dubuque area as a destination for travel. This same evolution has allowed new opportunities, new partnerships, and new growth. With growth, comes change. In July of 2013, the Dubuque Area Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) began as its own organization, operating as a destination marketing organization whose sole focus is providing and advocating for a strengthened tourism infrastructure for both visitors and partners. The Dubuque Area Convention and Visitors Bureau actively engages the general public to visit, explore, and spend the night in our community at a hotel/motel so that we can continue to enhance the individual's experience. Through this process we generate hotel/motel tax which allows our community to continue the process of generating money to further the promotion of our community to visitors and continue the process of growing our community through the improvements made to our streets, parks, and overall city amenities for our citizens.

Bureau

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Bureau is organized as an Iowa nonprofit corporation and is exempt from the payment of federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as organizations described in Section 501(c)(6). The Bureau is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Bureau is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purposes. The Bureau has determined that it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (990-T) with the IRS. The Bureau believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Bureau would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Officers and Board members are required to complete a conflict of interest policy annually disclosing any possible conflicts of interest. The Board reviews any conflicts and the interested person is given an opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board. The interested person is asked to leave the Board meeting. The Chairperson of the Board shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing board determines whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing Board may determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it will make the decision as to enter into the transaction.
