Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Clinical Programs This area is responsible for the development and implementation of clinical and quality improvement initiatives for Community Care at several levels the practice/medical home, the regional network, and the central office This program develops and implements population management initiatives that include care management and disease management, acute care, prevention and screening Some of our core initiatives include but are not limited to the following complex case management, transitional care, asthma, palliative care, chronic disease including self-management of chronic disease, behavioral health integrations and high risk obstetric care (OB)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Data Analytics Performance measures and data analytics have been established on a statewide basis. The process includes developing systems for collecting and analyzing data and reporting performance measure results. These reports are created at the program, network and practice level and provide the basis for measuring improvement and impact on the enrolled population.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

General Missions CCNC, Inc. was created to allow the benefits of North Carolina's unique approach to healthcare to be made available more broadly, including to new populations beyond Medicaid recipients. The overarching goal is to educate, showcase, and share CCNC's model of patient-centric care by demonstrating the organization's success in establishing medical homes and the care management program. CCNC's ability to demonstrate its innovative thinking and successful implementation has received national attention. Organizations have invited CCNC to present its model and services to leadership, staff, legislatures, and communities. Organizations include governmental and non-governmental agencies as well as small and large companies throughout the country. By demonstrating CCNC's ability to bring about positive societal change, CCNC is building long-term relationships with a number of these entities.
