What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
BT Studios Inc is a performance company that provides an enriching environment of education and entertainment while focusing on community involvement. The educational programs and year-round performances offered by the organization are designed to develop artists and patrons in both mind and spirit. The organization's educational programs focus on the process of theatre arts, allowing program participants to learn valuable life lessons such as tolerance, communication, problem-solving skills, cooperation, respect for one's self and others, humility, and compassion. Participants are encouraged to maintain an open mind, speak from the heart, and share talents that will inspire the community and self. The year-round performances allow local artists to develop their creative spirit while promoting the local performing arts. Proceeds from these performances are reinvested to further develop the organization's educational and community outreach programs.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 The Literature Alive Project brings children's stories to life on the stage. The event is produced in collaboration with the Tom Green County Library and is designed to promote the joys of literature and theatre to young readers and families throughout the community. Admission to the event is free and every child receives a free book that can be autographed after the show by the story characters. This year's production of "How I Became a Pirate" brought 1,450 people through the local library in just 3 days and 800 "How I Became a Pirate" books were provided to young readers. Literature Alive is an annual event and preparations have already started for the 2018 production. The organization is pleased to bring "Where the Wild Things Are" to the stage in April 2018. 30 "The Diary of Anne Frank" was a production of the 2016-2017 season and part of a community effort to share an important story about intolerance from a society that would not accept differences. Each performance was followed by a talk-back session with a local community member of Jewish faith. This production received an overwhelming response from the community and performances quickly sold-out. In cooperation with the San Angelo Cultural Affairs Council, the organization was able to offer free performances to schools, organizations, and church groups. An estimated 315 local students were brought to see the show. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . <input type="checkbox"/>	30a	4,818
