Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
 NOLA Micro Schools was created with the common belief that we need more schools in New Orleans, whose drive to excellence is powered by the unique passions, talents, struggles and curiosities of its student body. Our commitment is to provide each of those students with the means necessary to discover their own personal potential and to grow in their sense of self as they understand their abilities to be lifelong learners and changers of the world. We prepare our students to pursue their passions and their creativity through a blending of state-of-the-art software, quest-like projects with real-world applications, Socratic discussions and apprenticeships in diverse, student-centered, multi-age classrooms
