THERAPY AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICESThe therapy program provides mental health and therapeutic services to agency clients. In addition to office-based services, services may be provided in clients' homes and in the community. The program's objective is to enable clients to improve and maintain self-sufficiency and quality of life. Psychiatry services and home based psychiatric rehabilitation services are also provided. During FY 2017, therapy staff saw approximately 1,213 clients. About 218 individuals were seen by psychiatry staff and 55 received psychiatric rehabilitation services.

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,626,846 including grants of $ 7,035) (Revenue $ 389,310)

SERVICE COORDINATIONService Coordination is a labor intensive service provided to about 1,000 households each month that consists of arranging, coordinating, monitoring and advocating for the full array of services necessary to meet the client's needs. Service Coordination encompasses a range of concrete and supportive services, which may include but are not limited to advocacy, information and referral, assessment, client education, budgeting and financial management/assistance, service coordination as well as assistance with housing, transportation, or in-home services. These services are designed to foster independence and support the client's highest possible level of functioning. Often times Service Coordination can only be effective when supportive counseling or therapy is a critical component in this process.

Part V, Line 4	THE ASSOCIATED JEWISH CHARITIES OF BALTIMORE, AN UNRELATED ENTITY, HOLDS THE ENDOWMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE JCS Draws from JCS's endowments are used To support the programmatic and administrative needs of the agency and to provide direct assistance to clients Endowments may support operations falling within the regular policies and process of the agency or may support clients in meeting extra-ordinary needs Some designated funds also provide college scholarships which are awarded according to an open, competitive process

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization has adopted the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this policy, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position would be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Management evaluated the Organization's tax positions and concluded that it has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with provisions of this guidance. The Organization is no longer subject to income tax examinations for the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before June 30, 2014.

form 990, part III, line 4b	FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE SERVICES JCS provides financial assistance to individuals and families to enable them to arrive at goals that help them move towards financial self-sufficiency. These goals are developed by and agreed upon by the individual/family and the JCS staff. JCS provides financial assistance in a sensitive manner that preserves the dignity of applicants while providing accountability for the disbursement of these community funds. Financial assistance is frequently provided on an emergency basis yet occasionally, on-going financial aid is necessary. Financial assistance is only provided as part of a comprehensive plan drawn up together by the social worker/case manager and the client that includes both short-term and long-term goals. In total, assistance was provided to about 448 households during FY 2017. In addition, within its financial assistance program, JCS subsidizes personal care services which help elderly, frail individuals remain in their homes. During FY 2017, 206 individuals received this assistance.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each trustee, officer, committee member and employee in a position to influence or vote on Jewish Community Services ("JCS") policy or expenditures (a "Key Individual") shall complete a conflict of interest questionnaire to fully and completely disclose the material facts about any actual or potential conflicts of interest. The disclosure statement shall be completed upon his/her association with the agency, and shall be updated annually thereafter. The conflict of interest statements shall be filed with the official corporate records of the agency. With respect to any proposed contract or other transaction between JCS and one or more Key Individuals, Family Members, or Related Entities, which is considered by the Board of Directors, the officers, or any committee of JCS for authorization, approval or ratification, the following rules shall apply: 1. Full disclosure, in writing, of the relationship or interest shall be made by the Key Individual to the President of the Board and to the chairman of any committee acting on the contract or transaction. 2. The contract or transaction shall be considered properly authorized, approved or ratified only if there is a favorable vote of a majority of JCS trustees, officers or committee members (whichever group is acting on the contract or transaction) present and voting at such meeting. The person having a conflict shall vacate the room in which the matter is being voted upon and shall not participate in the final deliberation or decision regarding the matter, other than to be available to present factual information or respond to questions. 3. The Key Individual who has such a relationship or interest shall not be counted in determining the existence of a quorum for the purpose of voting upon the contract or transaction at any meeting. 4. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect that the conflict disclosure was made, the vote taken, and where applicable, the abstention from voting and participation of the Key Individual. If the Board of Directors has reason to believe that an interested party has failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, it shall inform the person of the basis for such belief and take the appropriate action. The Chief Administrative Officer and Chair of the Board Budget and Administration Committee are responsible for making sure that this policy is complied with if a conflict arises with an interested party.
