Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1	The College is a member of the Council of Independent Colleges in Virginia (CICV) which supports Virginia Private Colleges by advocating public policy positions and monitoring legislation impacting the independent higher education community. CICV provides a voice for Virginia's independent higher education community and advocates on behalf of schools, students, and their families at the Virginia Assembly, in Congress, and before boards, agencies and commissions. CICV estimates that 11.31% of the 16-17 dues ($31,202) was used for lobbying. The College President is a member of NAICU (National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, CICV (see above), and VFIC (Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges). When these organizations hold meetings, there are often local and state legislators in attendance. The President will from time to time engage in discussions with these legislators as a normal course of attending these meetings.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Within the limits of available resources, the College makes every effort to make financial aid opportunities available to needy and academically eligible students. Students must be enrolled in full-time undergraduate or graduate degree programs to be considered for College academic scholarships, grants and/or need-based financial aid. With the exception of some academic scholarships and graduate aid, students who wish to apply for grants, loans or work-study must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Awards are considered on the basis of financial need and/or a student's academic profile. Awards are packaged using a combination of grants and scholarships, loans, and work-study assignments. Students must be in good academic standing and achieve the minimum standards of academic progress. We use the College Board's Powerfaids software to manage our financial aid database and awarding procedures.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part V, Line 1a	Includes Tax forms 1099-MISC (155), 1099-R (49), and 1098-T (3429)

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Tax Form 990 is internally prepared by the Senior Accountant - Endowment and Investments and reviewed by the Controller and VP for Business and Finance. The Form 990 is then sent to be reviewed by the following Trustees: Chair of the Board, Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee, and all members of the Audit Committee. They review the document and notify the Business Office of their approval within three business days. The completed Tax Form 990 is then emailed (or sent overnight) to all Trustees. The Business Office executes and submits the Form 990 to the IRS electronically. Schedule B, Schedule of Contributors, is not included in the information sent to the Trustees in order to maintain confidentiality for the College's donors.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	As outlined in the College's By-laws, the Board prohibits conflict of interest by its Trustees and College Officers in particular matters under consideration by the Board, in accordance with the Conflict-of-Interest policy for Trustees and College Officers. Each Trustee and College Officer is asked to 1) review the Conflict-of-Interest policy annually, 2) disclose any possible personal, familial or business relationships that reasonably could give rise to conflict involving the College, 3) acknowledge by his or her signature that he or she is in compliance with the letter and the spirit of the policy. If a conflict is suspected or confirmed, the matter shall be discussed between the committee chair, the Board chair, and the Trustee in question, to determine if any specific vote by the Trustee should be recanted and if said Trustee should be involved in any future discussion on the topic. Should the matter not be resolved by the committee chair, the Board chair, and the Trustee in question, ultimate enforcement of any conflict will be determined by the Executive Committee as may be appropriate. The completed Conflict-of-Interest forms are monitored and maintained in the President's Office.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The compensation for all faculty and staff (except the College President) is set on an annual basis in keeping with the College's salary plan that was adopted after a year-long study in 2005-06. The President's salary is set by the College's Compensation Committee. The committee is led by the Board Chair and includes several other Board members who have been appointed to the committee by the Board Chair. The purpose of the committee is to review the President's job performance and determine the appropriate salary to recommend to the full Board of Trustees. The Trustees meet in Executive session during the annual May meeting to receive the report of the Compensation Committee and act on their recommendation. The actions of the Board of Trustees while in Executive session are documented in the minutes of the meeting. In October 2010, the College obtained the service of an independent consultant to analyze the President's compensation package with Presidential compensation from approximately ten (10) to fifteen (15) comparator colleges. In fiscal year 2015-16, a new study was performed by an independent consultant to review the compensation of senior management and the President and recommend to the Compensation Committee where any adjustments were necessary.
