SCHEDULE OF INFORMATION FOR FORM 990-PF

PART XV, LINE 2b:

The foundation does not use grant application forms. The applicant should submit a proposal to the foundation that includes all of the following:

A concise description of the project, including specific purposes for which the requested grant is to be used, its need and the anticipated results;

A detailed budget for the project including total cost, the specific amount requested, and in the case of a matching grant, the desired matching ratio;

A schedule for the project, the amount raised to date, plans for procuring the remainder, other funding sources and provision for contingencies and on-going support;

A description of the organization including its general purpose, past accomplishments and plans for the future;

A current balance sheet and operating statement showing the major sources from which the organization derives support and endowments, if any;

Qualifications of project personnel and a statement from the chief administrator of the organization indicating approval of the grant request and assurance that the grant will be spent within one year of its receipt;

Copies of IRS forms certifying that the organization.

- (a) Is exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3) and
- (b) Is not classified as a private foundation as defined in IRC section 509(a).

In cases where IRC forms are on file with the foundation, a letter stating that the organization's status is unchanged is required;

Names and affiliations of the organization's trustees, directors or advisors, and

A brief report to the foundation, no later than one year after payment of a grant indicating how the funds were used and the status of the project
